

Listening to this group reminds me why I wanted to become a musician, and why I'm still proud to call myself one. Folks, it just doesn't get any better than this."

John Lyon, host of Deep Cove Coffee House

Illiteratty is a six-member meta-folk band based in Vancouver, BC. We've recorded three albums available to stream: www.illiteratty.bandcamp.com

The Music

We play metafolk... meaning, original swing, european cabaret, ambient, Celtic, rockabilly, a cappella, folk, world, pop (did we mention folk?) – with sharp lyrics and up to five-part vocals. The full complement is guitar, mandolin, violin, keys/accordion, standup bass and small percussion. Our music is funny, angry, idiosyncratic, intelligent, and extremely varied.

Website, Streaming & Social Media

www.illiteratty.com
www.illiteratty.bandcamp.com
www.illiteratty.bandcamp.com
www.twitter.com/illiteratty

Videos

www.youtube.com/illiteratty

Hi-Res Images

www.illiteratty.com/photos-and-videos

illiteratty

Recent & Upcoming Shows

Steveston Folk Guild, Steveston (July 18, 2019)
Vancouver Folk Festival (July 19-21, 2019)
Album Release, Vancouver (August 18, 2019)
Steveston Cannery (August 30, 2019)
Hollyburn Folk Club (November 1, 2019)
Victoria Folk Club (January 19, 2020)
Cranberry Commons (February 15, 2020)

We look forward to performing soon in 2021!

Contact

earlepeach@yahoo.ca 604 874 1256
illiteratty@gmail.com

Illiteratty Members

Earle Peach, guitar & vocals
Albert Klassen, mandolin & vocals
Kirsten Daub, violin & vocals
Simon Kendall, keyboards & vocals
Natalie Philp, standup bass & vocals
Wes Skakun, percussion & vocals